MEDFORD INTERSECTION CLOSURE EXTENDED

Construction at Church, Wilkins Station and New Freedom Roads Extended to January 27th

Construction of the final phase of intersection improvements for Church Road (County Route 616), Wilkins Station Road and New Freedom Road in Medford Township is extended to Friday, January 27, 2012.

The intersection will remain closed to all traffic for an additional 14 days and is expected to open on or about Friday, January 27th, weather permitting. Until then all three roads will be open to local traffic only to the intersection.

A detour is posted to Medford-Mount Holly Road (CR541) to NJ Route 70 East to Eayrestown Road.
