

4-H Program Curriculum

4-H subject matter areas are broad and diverse in order to meet the needs of all youth. Curriculum is designed in these areas using knowledge and information generated through the land grant system of which Rutgers University is a part.

The following are the classifications into which 4-H curricula are placed:

- Agricultural Science
- Animal Science
- Citizenship
- Communication/Expressive Arts
- Consumer & Family Science
- Earth & Space Science
- Food & Nutrition
- Health & Fitness
- Leadership
- Personal Development
- Plant Science
- Technology and Engineering
- Workforce Preparation

The Burlington County 4-H Office has a library of curriculum materials in a wide variety of project areas. Leaders may use these items in the 4-H office. Take advantage of this great resource.

Catalogs to purchase 4-H curriculum materials for your club are also available at the 4-H office.
