Burlington County Seeks Nominations for the 2022 Outstanding Female Student of Burlington County Awards.

Each year, the Women's Advisory Council and the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners honor outstanding women and female students who have made a difference within the Burlington County community.

The County is seeking nominations for the following awards:

Alice Paul Champion Award (honor of Alice Paul who was a fierce advocate of women's equality issues, particularly the right to vote and gender equality guaranteed by the Constitution): The recipient must demonstrate leadership along with their advocacy for women's equality issues

Celeste Arties Memorial Award (in memory of Ms. Arties, who served on the Burlington County Committee on Women for many years): The recipient must show excellence in scholastics and leadership while serving as a positive role model for other young women through her interest in women's issues

Elizabeth Coleman White STEM Award (honor of Burlington County's late Agricultural Specialist Ms. White and Dr. Fredrick A Coville, cultivating the first high-bush blueberry crop): The recipient must have excellence in scholastics and leadership as well as have an extensive interest in STEM studies and hope to pursue Science Technology Engineering and Math in her future educational endeavors

Each award comes with a $1,000 scholarship and will be announced later this year.

The nominated high school senior must complete the application, which includes an essay of no more than 750 words. All nominations must be received by 4:00 PM on Friday, June 3, 2022.
