Burlington County Parks System

The Grounds At Smithville Mansion

Smithville is the crown jewel of the County Parks System. The company town thrived in the 1800s under the leadership of Hezekiah B. Smith, an inventor, entrepreneur and politician. Smith resided in the stately Greek revival mansion built in 1840. The Mansion is surrounded by stone and brick courtyard walls that encompass a formal parterre garden, grape arbor and manicured lawn areas.

While the mansion is not available for rent, the courtyard grounds within the walls may be reserved for catered affairs. Rental areas include a 40 by 80 foot tent that can accommodate up to 160 people, the Rose Garden, porches, or the entire courtyard.

Rental Fees:

The rental fee for the tent & Rose Garden is $2,500 for county residents ($3,000 non-residents). A deposit of $500 ($1,000 for non-residents) is required to secure a date. The deposit is applied to rental fee. Additional fees are charged for use of additional spaces.

Lyceum of History & Natural Sciences

Located at 307 High Street in Mount Holly, the Burlington County Lyceum of History and Natural Sciences is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. A stately two and 1/2 story Georgian building, the Langstaff Mansion, was built in 1830 by wealthy plantation owner James Langstaff. The building features original crystal chandeliers, blue marble fireplaces, painted glass panes, and decorative trim and molding, on over two acres of landscaped grounds. The grounds and the community room, measuring 24 by 43 feet, are available to rent for catered events. The maximum capacity is 72.

Rental Fees:

The total rental fee is $1500 that includes a $500 deposit to secure a date. Remaining balance will be charged directly to the caterer chosen.

Operating hours:

Monday - Saturday 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.

The Community Agricultural Center

Located at the intersection of Centerton and Hartford Roads in Moorestown, the Agricultural Center is nestled on a 62 acre preserved working farm. The Agricultural Center is home to a seasonal farmers' market held on Saturdays from May-October. The newly renovated farmhouse includes meeting space and the farmhouse kitchen, a commercial kitchen providing kitchen space for food entrepreneurs to explore. The Market Barn, perfect for an outdoor, rustic celebration, measures 105 x 40 feet and is covered with open sides. Capacity is 175. The Market Plaza which measures approximately 105 x 110 feet and has one 30 x 60 foot event tent.

Rental Fees:

The Market Barn ~ The total rental fee is $1,500 for county residents ($2000 non-residents) that includes a $250 deposit ($1,000 for non-residents) to secure a date.
