BURLCO SPONSORS CRISIS RESPONSE RESOURCE FAIR JUNE 1

Information & Assistance About Suicide Prevention & Trauma Response

The Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders is sponsoring a Resource Fair by the Traumatic Loss Coalition (TLC) for Youth Program in collaboration with the Burlington County School Crisis Response Team. The Resource Fair is Wednesday, June 1 from 3:30 – 6 pm at the Burlington County Special Services School District's Main Gym, 20 Pioneer Blvd. in Westampton. Various agencies throughout Burlington County will be available to discuss their services and answer questions.

The Resource Fair is an excellent opportunity to learn about the TLC in Burlington County, the School Crisis Response Team and the many various community agencies throughout the county and how to access their services. The Resource Fair is open to the public at no charge. The deadline for registration is Tuesday, May 25th. Informational handouts and light refreshments will be available.

PRESS RELEASE: Resource Fair – Add One – 05/13/11

The Traumatic Loss Coalitions for Youth Program (TLC), New Jersey's primary youth suicide prevention program, is an interactive, statewide network that offers collaboration and support to professionals working with school-age youth. TLC provides timely information and assistance with suicide prevention and trauma response to schools and communities following unfortunate losses due to suicide, homicide, accident and illness.

The TLC is funded by the New Jersey Department of Children and Families (DCF), Division of Child Behavioral Health Services (DCBHS). It operates as a county-based collaborative with a TLC Coordinator in each county. For more information and/or registration, contact Traumatic Loss Coalition Coordinator Elfrieda Francis in the Burlington County Health Department, Office of Human Services at (609) 265-5538 or Carrie Long at clong@bcsssd.k12.nj.us.
