MEDFORD MEMORIAL SCHOOL STUDENTS SUPPORT ANIMAL SHELTER Students Raise and Donate $1,718 To Burlington County Animal Shelter

Students from the Medford Township Memorial School recently provided $1,718.56 to the Burlington County Animal Shelter to help fund the cost of food, beddings, cleaning materials and other supplies. The funds were delivered by 7th Grade Teacher Vicky Gorman, and Colleen Lash, Assistant to the Principal, who came up with the idea. But major credit goes to the students, who aggressively sought donations within and outside the school, and now say they want to make this a yearly project. In the photo (left to right) are shelter employees Mindy Hoffman, Henderson Tyrrell, and Manager Lisa Cliver. Ms. Gorman is front and center. In the background is a hefty collection of supplies which students also collected.
